Run Number: 2404

Date: 8th March 2018

Venue: TAR College

Hare: AGM Run

GM's Run Notes

The 8th March was International Women's Day which nicely coincided with the Harriets' AGM. Over the years our female membership seems to have stagnated and new faces are scarce and one wonders why? Do the shopping malls have more appeal these days than getting some good healthy exercise? Are fellowship, friendship and good looking (but balding) guys aided by alcohol, not the flavour of the month anymore? It's a worrying trend for this Club's survival, any Club come to that and so we all need to look how we can increase our membership to ensure our continued longevity. Yet there must be something about our Club that Members like since we have many who have stayed for years but some of the newer faces have come and gone rather too quickly as other interests rise.

The AGM was open to all this year but looking around it was the same faces once again with only one or two new ones. When it came to the vote for Committee selection I was rather shocked that NO ONE and I mean NO ONE would stand for election!!! What is happening that the women in our Club do not want to help run it? Are we all so busy that we cannot give even a few hours of our time to help this 45 year old Club?? It would seem not!!

As the women procrastinated over the roles of the Committee it became clear that they would follow only a leader of their choice and finally we had our Committee for the coming year. BUT looking forward, what is going to happen next year and the following years after that?? Think about it! If you want this Club to survive we need for EVERYONE to stand up and help not just the same few each year.

I was not able to help set this run but I thank Sai Seng for once more stepping up and helping out. The 'On In' was at the end of the lane alongside TAR College which is our old runsite. I understand from the comments made by the runners it was a good trail and long enough for the evening. After the icing where 'Jackpot' became a new member (welcome, welcome) we retired to Yean Yean restaurant for a 7 course dinner, where the food was eaten faster than the serving of it but with beers continuing to flow the evening went well. The restaurant owner was very patient but he gradually moved us outside where the remaining members gathered around the beer wagon and drank even more and he brought down the shutters, no doubt happy with his takings for the night.

Thank you to all who made the evening a success and for the words of encouragement and support I received. The problem still remains though... we do not have enough female members or members willing to serve on the Committee. Perhaps some of you can persuade your sisters, girlfriends or even your mothers to join. Think about the future now!

Finally I would like to thank Nikki for organising the dinner and for being the best On Sec the Harriets' have ever had.

All Harriets are invited by Savor and Mission Impossible to the Indian Association run on Wednesday at Island Glades Chinese Temple 5.45pm. Please support.

 Next Week we are at Shamrock Beach Watertank (Kali's corner) for Kiss Me's run. Please come and support her *****

A word from the outgoing On Sec

This is my last newsletter however Bibi Tulips decided to rejoin the committee and in her new role as On Sec I know she will continue to provide a high quality newsletter for your enjoyment.

Thank you to everyone who bothered to approach me throughout my tenure to express their appreciation regarding the newsletters I submitted. For those members who were not present at the AGM, many, many thanks to Just Beer for her incredible dedication to the club and to Akz Hole for his amazing (behind the scenes) administrative support, ensuring the smooth operation of this great club.

As the new VGM I look forward to supporting the GM and the Club, and putting an end to the negative comments and criticism constantly circulated by a few individuals. We will not allow their agenda to see this great club dissolve. Please don't waste your time giving them a platform. We will maintain the club's great reputation and ensure accountability and transparency is a priority.

As this is my final newsletter I have included extra pages of my warped sense of humor. No offense has ever been intentional to anyone who may be sensitive. Please enjoy the newsletter.

Friends are like knickers.

Some crawl up your arse,
some snap under pressure,
some don't have the strength to hold you up,

some get a little twisted,
some are your favourite,

some you can see right thru,
some are cheap and just plain nasty and some actually cover your arse

God, you suck at this.

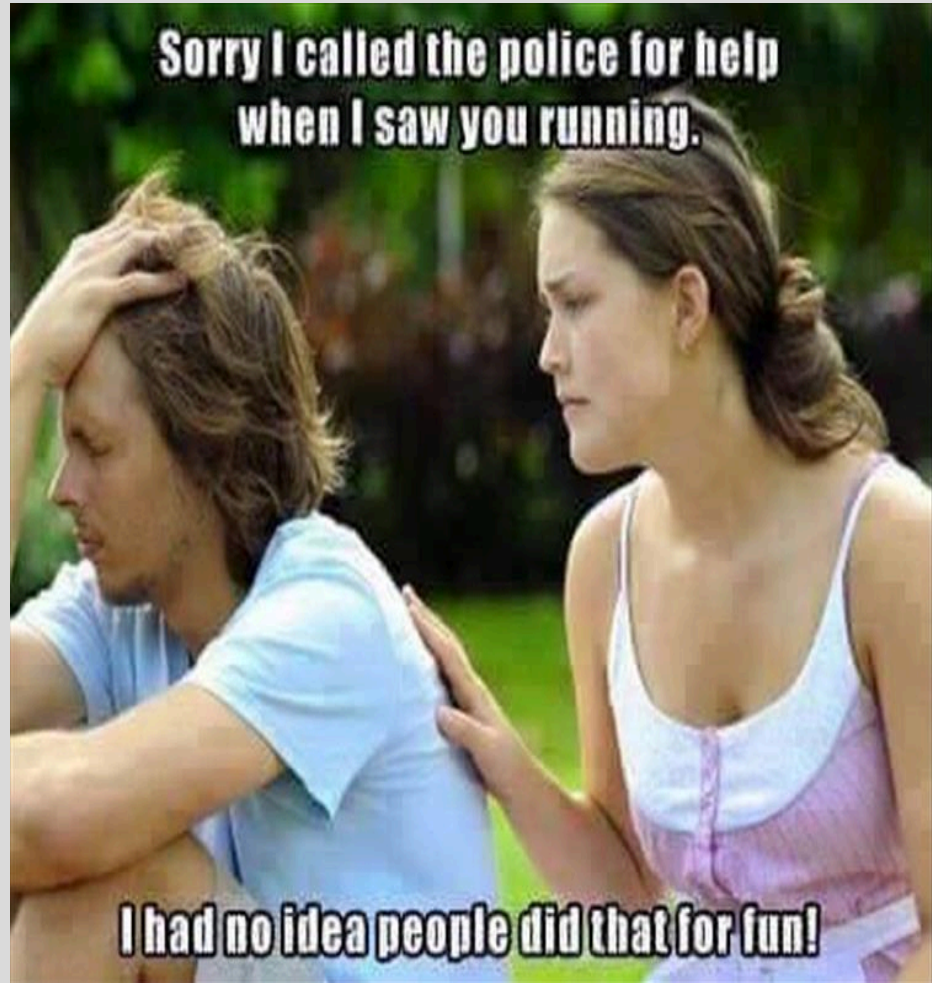

Shut up Jesus.

No seriously. I'm in a robe and flip-flops and I'm right behind you.

Sorry I called the police for help when I saw you running.

I had no idea people did that for fun!
