Run: 2415

Date: 24 May 2018

Bunny: Rupiah

Runsite: TAR, College

I knew already from inside information that it wasn't going to be a long run, but I still went in 20 minutes earlier so I could be out on time to help the Bunny serving dinner. I gave the camera and my clipboard to Money so he could take notes and keep track of the visitors. Inspector Gadget decided to join me, which was much appreciated. We chit chatted along and up we went. We saw Woody and Philip struggling going up and we passed them. I must admit after that Gadget got enough of me, too slow and he ran all the way back to the runsite. Well that's what I think he did, because I never saw him on the run again and when I returned he was happily sipping a 100 plus. I climbed up and up till the Hash Highway, Woody was behind me and was also relieved that we had hit the Highway. From there it was a simply jog down to the corner where we normally go further down. The jogging did not go well the heat was just too much. Almost out I met Kopi Tiam and just before we were in the valley some nasty bees decided to make our life difficult. Skirting down in the durian plantation we reached Black Lee's old place and from there a simple walk back to the runsite. Slowly all the runners returned where home cooked food provided by the Bunny was waiting for them.

Hash House Harriets Penang

*Next week we are at Charlie's Market

Announcements On Sec

1. When a bunny/hare invite guests for the run, then the bunny/hare has a choice to either pay guest fees for them or during the circle when the guests are being introduced to buy the circle beers for them.
2. The outstation run to Ipoh is postponed to a later date.

Burst, from last week's run by Botak Chin

After my navigator lead me to the wrong run site, I made a phone call to Money who directed me to Is. Glades. Although it was just a little after 5pm, hashers had already gone in & there was another group of 6 hashers keen to start early so off we went into the jungle lead by Money. Unfortunately, I was stuck behind Skippy & his new-found friend Tom,. we found Skippy very slow & we skipped passed him at the microwave station. The run took us on a long track before the on up at which point Tom being young sped ahead, just when I thought the run setters had given the hashers a pleasant mid-week run, but NO, there was even a longer on up, I hit the mid-point of the 2nd long climb to find Viking with 2 Harriet's, Bibi & Rupiah taking a breather, it would seem that no Viking has hit the 70s he prefers to go at a ladies' pace, I noticed Rupiah was rather wet, apparently this was due to crossing the small stream that Viking failed to offer assistance which meant Rupiah slipped into the water. I decided to push ahead as the daylight did not have long to go & after I was halfway down the on down an Indian male hasher shot by me, I had expected all the fast runners to be close behind but, no, there were no other hashers. The mystery unfolded when I completed the hash, apparently all of the hashers except one that left at 6pm. followed the sheep mentality, that is you just follow the lead sheep where ever the go & in this case it was onto the wrong paper which turned all of the group into SCBs. Now back to Skippy's guest, Tom who did not have the correct hash shoes but did get around the run in good time but he complained about a little Indian lady who ran passed him at great speed, ah, I explained that was Speed Hound who is a very fast lady so much, so no man has caught her in 60 years. Right at dusk in comes Skippy looking a little worse for wear but a beer or two soon fixed that. The bunny provided some great food for the hashers & of course the dinner club. GM called the circle where the usual chargers & icings took place, the evening was enjoyed by all of the hashers.

Hash House Harriets Penang

Circle

1. Welcome to our guests: Taliban, Alvin Lim and Period. Alvin was already gone but Taliban and Period were still here and enjoyed the run.
2. Jenny on ice. OnSec came out of the jungle and heard her talking to Beauty Queen about Ang More. OnSec got curious as to what she was talking about, as it turned out she was telling Beauty Queen that there were a lot of white one's in this hash, unlike the time when she was a hash member.

3. Charge from the floor by Botak Chin got Tulips on ice. GM asked him to write the burst from last week run and she did not put it in the newsletter. Tulips said she never got it. Update: it still was not in the emails, but I have put it in this week newsletter.
4. Then Skippy put Viking and Money Manfred on ice. Skippy said he was done putting up with their “shit” and “racial discrimination” against his person. If I remember correctly they answered “A skippy should jump and not climb!”
5. Bunny on ice. She thanked the co-hares. And we thanked her for the nice home cooked food. Circle closed.

Funnies

While volunteering in a soup kitchen, I hit it off with a very attractive single man. It was a relief, since my mother and I always laughed because the men to whom I was drawn were inevitably married. So, optimistic about my chances, I asked my new friend what he did for a living. He replied, “I’m a priest.”

The ad for the 14k white gold engagement ring in “like-new condition” included a caveat: It was worn “by Satan herself.” The ad then warned, “Ring may be cursed, as it tends to leave a path of destruction behind it. Possible events associated with this ring include but are not limited to: damage sustained to house, vehicle, heart, downed power lines, fallen trees, and swarms of locusts.” The upside: “Other than that, a very nice piece of jewelry.”
