Run: 2440

Date: 15 November 2018

Bunny: Our Indian Members

Runsite: OM Kitchen

Sai Seng, Mission Impossible, Saylor, Snap Cop and myself were the runset team for the Diwali Run. Right from the start the first two set the pace with the remaining three at the back playing catch up. They went so fast we soon lost them and only had the trail paper to follow. A bit like doing the hash proper I guess!! What seemed easy soon gave way to ups and downs, long forgotten trails, culminating with an exit at Moongate.

It wasn't short in my mind and I somehow lost both companions Saylor and Snap Cop along the way. Hence was largely on my own most of the time until quite near the restaurant when they emerged from Youth Park!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

By evening the heavens opened once again and I am sure those in the jungle were cursing the run and the difficulty in the wet conditions.

Luckily the plan was to have some shelter and we were grateful for such at the restaurant. The relentless rain did not abate but grew stronger as the evening wore on. With the rain pounding down on the roof one had to almost shout to be heard however!

This year the organisation of venue and food was done by Mission Impossible, Saylor and Snap Cop. The titbits were sponsored by Saylor for the evening and were readily eaten up.

We had three guests for the evening, Yan from Australia, Shan and Kenny from the Rainforest Hash who were there to publicise their hash's forthcoming Rainforest Challenge in December.

When the food started the hashers eagerly eat and went for seconds and thirds. Unfortunately though no-one gave a thought about those runners still out there in the rain and dark finishing the run. When they returned they were not happy to see the food had all been eaten and very little was left.

I must admit that they had every right to feel hard done by. We all must remember that there are others out there trying to complete the run and on the evening, in very bad conditions. They are the ones who deserve the food not just Dinner Club members. The food wasn't being served and therefore it is up to the individual to ask themselves what about the others? How many are still out there? Is there enough for them? All our members are invited to eat but let's make sure we have enough food for those still out there doing their best for future runs!!

Around 8.30 we had the circle but the rain, although lessening by this time, still made it hard for me to be heard. I thank M&S for lending his voice so that mine could be heard.

Circle

1. Welcome the guests Yan, Shan and Kenny. Nice to see you all.
2. The next on ice was once again Toddy Tan. It seems to becoming a habit for Toddy to hit the ice. But then again, as with last week, he is a great sport and blind without his glasses as we all know when he is on the run.
3. The next on ice was Spermwhale. Why?? Why Not!! Being a member of the Dinner Club or bringing his own booze. It's always a good one to put him on ice!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

4. Next on ice was Goodyear. It was his birthday on the day and his friends bought him a birthday cake to celebrate. Happy Birthday Goodyear. But he was also gracious enough to call Tiny whose birthday is Sunday to share the moment with him. Happy Birthday to you both. We also thank Goodyear for the crate of beer in celebration.

5. A charge from the floor by Mission Impossible saw the GM on ice. She helped to set the run but MI wanted to know why she and her 2 male companions were soooo late in returning to the runsite. Other happenings perhaps????

Hash House Harriets Penang

6. A name is a name is a name...except in Hash!! If you do not have a hash name then you are not fully immersed in the culture. Jennifer has been a member since August and although she has been missing some weeks it was thought that this occasion deserved to be her naming ceremony. After some deliberation amongst the members regarding a suitable name for her it was unanimously decided to name her LONG TIME NO CUM. Her initiation was carried out by Iceman in the best traditions of hash.

7. The last icing for the evening was for our Indian members and those others who contributed in some way. It was a new venue for us and a welcome one at that, especially with the violent rain storm. The evening was great with lots chatter, drinks and good food.

Funnies

A guy saves a frog from a forest fire. The frog turns out to be a magical frog, and is very grateful to the man for having saved its life. So the frog offers to grant him three wishes.

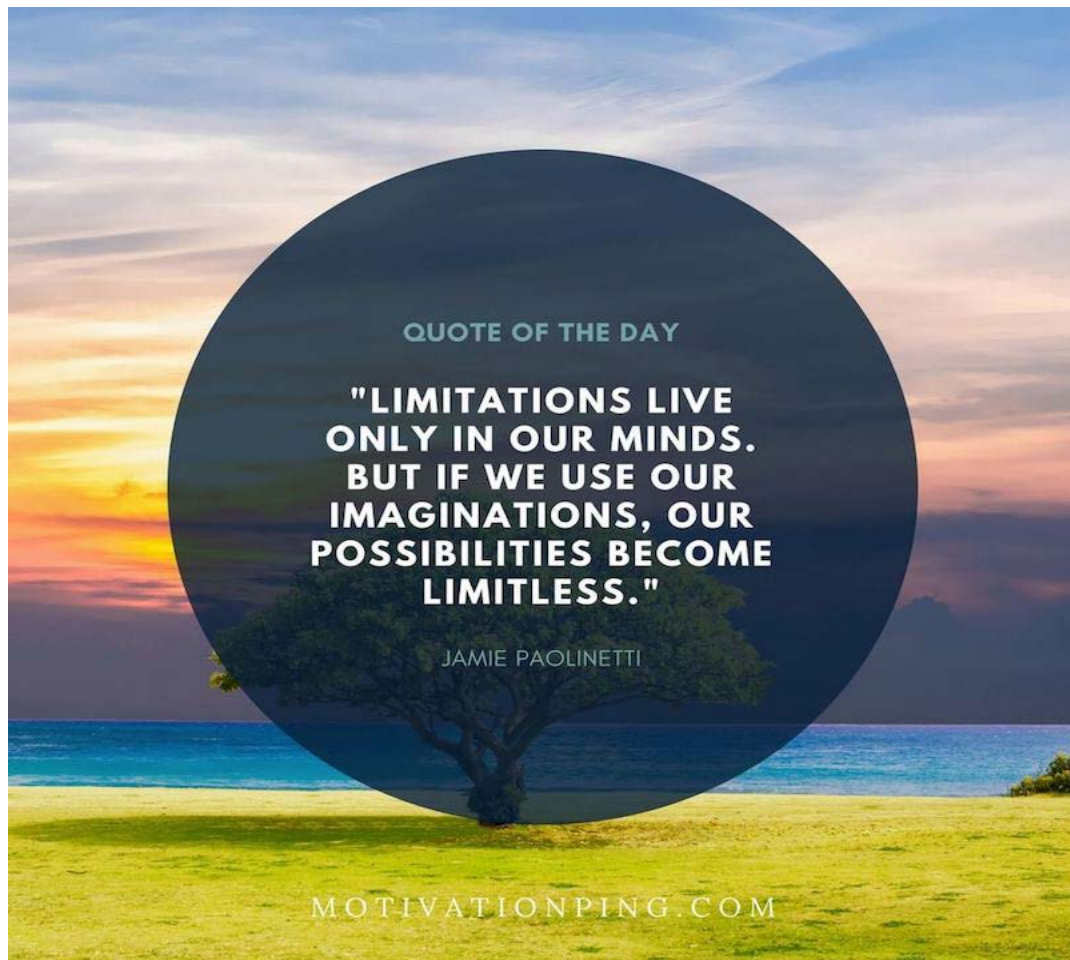

The man says, "Great. So I want:

1. Lifelong access to any cinema,
2. I want to be 10 years younger and
3. I want a highway that goes straight from here to Hawaii.

"I'm happy to help you but the third wish is really difficult. You'll have to wish for something else instead of that third wish," says the frog.

"OK," agrees the man reluctantly, "in that case I'd like to finally understand women."

The frog looks at him for a while: "And should the highway be a three-lane or a four-lane one?"
