Run: 2443

Date: 6 December 2018

Hare: Fancy Pants

Runsite: Lembah Permai, shoplots

The run started at the far corner of the same road that Money lives. The slippery On Up and slope was an indicator on what to expect on the run. We were on the old trail before the development and the building cut off yet another 'On In'.

The soft topsoil made the hike heavy of foot as the mud clung to the shoes with almost superglue adhesion! The mosquitoes on the other hand were busily swarming around for an unwilling blood donation over which we had no control except to keep moving.

Old paper leading up made the trail easy to follow and we decided to do this instead of blazing a new trail through the bush! As we reached the rise Sai Seng and Fancy Pants decided to take the trail down while I volunteered to remove the old paper but meet them further up as they swung back around and climbed once more.

Twenty minutes later they met me at the designated spot and then it was down and up from there to the ridge to finally exit on the Hash Highway where we turned right and then down the usual return back to the runsite.

In the evening there were only a handful of hashers waiting to go in. The on/off drizzling rain was a dampener which I suppose made many stay away. By 6pm a few more had arrived to be flagged off after a sermon from the hare regarding safety and not getting lost as he didn't want to go back in!!

The first out was Drippy Dick who proclaimed it the slippiest run of the year so far! Other Hashers trickled in and so did the dinner crowd. The arrival of the food had people quickly queuing up and then Samy announced that the beer was subsidized too!! The cool evening was lovely to sit, eat drink and chat before we had the circle.

We hope to see Fancy Pants and Fancy Panties again next year as we say Bon Voyage to them once more and wish them a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Interestingly Fancy Pants told us that December 6th is St. Nicholas Day and is celebrated throughout Germany more than Christmas itself!! Next week the festive spirit continues with the Christmas Run at Shamrock Beach hosted by those who celebrate it. I hope to see you all there to make this a great night full of merriment and fun.

*Next week we are at Shamrock Beach,
for the Christmas run
Please come and support*

Please respect the environment which we enjoy each week and ensure that no rubbish is left at the site, including cigarette butts, scraps and general litter. Thank you.

Circle

1. We had only one guest this week and we welcomed Bananaman who is no stranger to the Harriets.
2. Next on ice was a relative stranger since he hadn't been around for some time and hence the GM put Dieu Lah Singh on ice.
3. If you have British heritage then Brexit seems to be on all their minds at the moment and even though they do not live there anymore the two Steves were certainly talking up a storm during circle time and hence both Spermwhale and Woodpecker had to take their punishment.

4. 'So soon going back lah!' Was the general thought as we said Bon Voyage once again to Fancy Pants and Fancy Panties. Safe journey and we hope to see you both early next year.

5. Hare on Ice! Fancy Pants got his name for always wearing fancy pants at the hash. He has made a number of very brightly coloured ones and some years ago he was challenged to take them off. Which he did only to surprise everyone with another pair of brightly coloured pants on underneath. Over the years the Fancy Pants striptease has become legendary with the most pants that I can remember being 8 pairs!! Alas this time he didn't strip but did show them off to everyone! Don't forget it's the Christmas Run next week at Kali's Corner. Please come along for an evening of fun and fellowship and of course some great food and drink!

Funnies

On Christmas Eve, a long time ago, Santa Claus was getting ready for his annual journey. But this year there were many problems. Four of the elder elves became ill and the younger more in-experienced elves did not produce the toys as quickly, so Santa started to worry that he would not be ready in time. Then Mrs. Claus tells him that her mother is visiting. This makes Santa Claus stressed even more so. When he begins to gather the reindeer for his sleigh, he discovers that three of them are ready to give birth and two have jumped over the fence. The elves begin loading the sleigh and one of the boards of the sled breaks off and the bag of toys falls to the ground dispersing the toys all around. It goes without saying that Santa was not exactly in his best state of mind and slightly triggered. Then the doorbell rings and Santa goes to the door and expects another problem. He opens the door and there is a little angel with a big Christmas tree brought to cheer up Santa. The angel says in a loving tone: "Merry Christmas Santa, is it not a beautiful day today? I have a big beautiful tree for you, is it not a beautiful tree, where do you want me to put it?" And so began the tradition of the angel on top of the Christmas tree.
