Run: 2447

Date: 3 January 2019

Bunny: Grandma

Runsite: Bee Gallery

It had been sunny for a good few days but on Thursday morning the clouds gathered for light drizzle. Sai Seng and I set out to follow a run done by two other Chapters on previous weeks. It started at the dumpster in the Gardens and followed the 'On In' paper clipped by others. Going up the stairs there we turned left and into the bush. As there was so much paper I was hesitating to put more as it looked like a path to a gold mine already! Up to the ridge and then turn sharply down to follow an Up Down trail until we hit the Hash Highway. I rejoiced at this point thinking the run was largely over but we dipped down the other side to the stream and went back up to the Hash Highway from Charlie

Market to 46. We could only put torn paper here as hikers are prone to pick up clipped paper around this area.

Into the bush once again and we continued up until we hit Holland Chun. From here it was downhill all the way into the top end of the Botanical Gardens and then back to Bee Gallery.

The drizzle threatened again in the evening as hashers gathered for the 6pm start. Some, as usual these days, had gone in early to get a head start. The run was short/medium and took just over 2 hours to set so the FRBs should take no more than 45mins. It was actually 50 mins when Iceman returned followed by Imposter. By 7.30pm all were back even the late Mission Impossible who got himself confused with all the different papers on the trail.

Many thanks to Grandma for hosting the first run of 2019. Whilst the numbers were still small the atmosphere was still jovial and festive, many staying until late just chillin' out as they say!

*Next Week we are at Bayee Pass,
for Pukka Sahib's run
Please come and support*

Circle

1. Welcome to our frequent guest Moira @ Period. Nice to see you as always.
2. The GM then put Toddy Tan on the ice once again. He was going to leave before the circle so that he wouldn't be on ice. However the GM asked him to stay, which he obviously did, and she put him on ice for it!!
3. A charge from the floor by W'Anchor saw Speedhound on ice. She had just returned from a trip to North Africa and just days after leaving, tourists were killed in at least two of the places she visited. W'Anchor suggested the next time she goes she needed a bodyguard and selected Akz Hole to be her future protector and hence he joined her on the ice too.

4. A charge from the floor by Marks & Spencer put Uncle Bee on ice. Her crime was not adhering to the new law on No Smoking in restaurants or within a certain distance from them. He also remarked that these days she one of very few Harriets who does smoke and the only one on this particular evening!

5. Yet another charge from the floor, this time by Iceman, saw Imposter and W'Anchor on the ice. It would seem to Iceman that being a FRB you need to save your breath so that you can push on quickly, not like at the back when you take your time and can chat. So he was very surprised when both Imposter and W'Anchor were in front of him chatting away like two old ladies in a knitting circle, each trying to outdo each other with what ailments they had!!

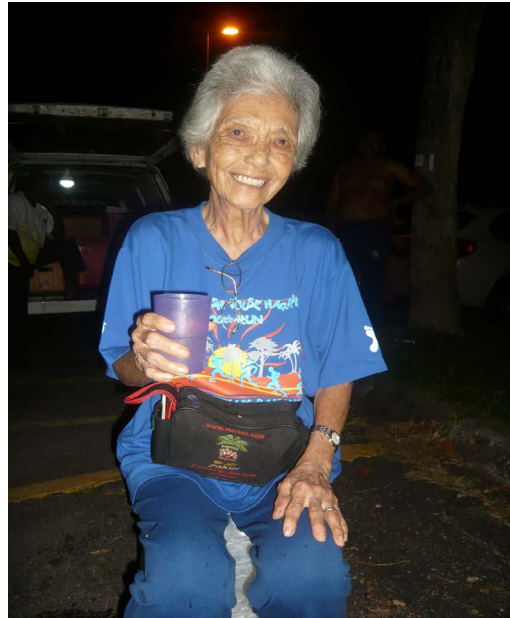

6. Mission Impossible was iced next due to his confusion in the papers he was following and hence doing a longer run than was necessary!

7. Bunny on Ice. Many thanks to Grandma for hosting the first run of the year. The run was good and so was the food. The evening weather held and we had another good Harriet night.

Don't forget that your 2019 Subs are due. Please don't let us have to chase you for them!

Funnies

I lost some weight last month. But now it found me again.

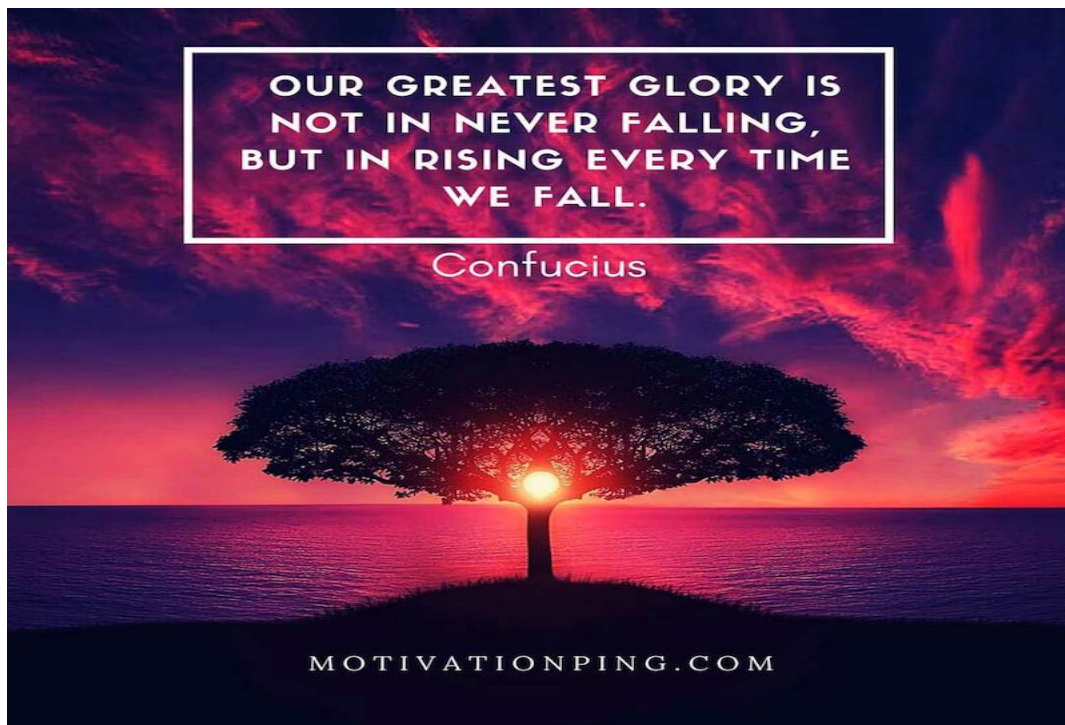

We had to pull over to let an ambulance whizz by, sirens blaring. My dad was silent for a while and then commented, "I can't see them selling much ice-cream at this speed."

Dad to his son: "I like you. You remind me of myself when I was young and dumb."

"Daughter to her dad: "What is it?" - Dad: "It" is a pronoun.

"Son, did you know I was named after Nikola Tesla?" "But Dad, your name is Michael!" "True, but I was named AFTER him."

You: "So, dad, I was thinking..." Dad: "Ohhhhh and I wondered what that high-pitched grinding sound was!"
