Run: 2452

Date: 7 February 2019

Bunny: Speedhound

Runsite: Taman Pekaka

The trail had been set on Wednesday morning by three women hashers. Chief Bunny was Speedhound with ex-Harriet member Nisha and myself as co-bunnies. In my mind the run was long but then again any run is long for my slow legs these days.

On Thursday, with Toddy as my sidekick we started the run at 4.15pm. Since I already knew the trail it was not a problem doing it but my tired legs took forever to move. All the while thunder rumbled reminding us that rain was not so far away.

Making slow progress going up a steep slope, the heavens opened and pelted us.

It became heavy and thereby progress became even slower as the rain blinded us. Stopping every now and then to clear my vision we carried on knowing we were almost at the top. Finally with a last effort we reached the path, carried on along it and reached the top station at 6pm.

Paper was hard to see and there were some bits sticking to the ground. Going down we reached the flat area, before choosing the path leading back to the runsite, but it was devoid of paper once again until we reached the “flag” tree which was an indicator of the path going down. We were lucky to see bits of paper on the ground with some still clinging onto leaves after the torrential down-pour.

Down and down we went until we reached a junction, turned left and again went down. The rain had settled the soil and going down was now somewhat easier. Reaching the last junction we saw the “On In” paper and removed it so as not to confuse anybody doing the run and going round twice!!

By the time we reached the runsite it was 7pm so it had taken us 2hrs 45 mins to finish. Iceman came back in one hr and 10 mins and I would still like to know how he and many others do it so fast!!

The Bunny had brought 3 different kinds of delicious food packets which all got eaten with subsidized beer and some sambal muffins.

Thank you to Speedhound for re-introducing Taman Pekaka/ Jln Ketitir to the Harriets. The run was long for Toddy and I but a medium one for the FRBs but all agreed it was a very good run!

The rain stayed away and the cool evening had the small crowd sitting and chatting into the night until it started to thin out around 10.30pm.

Once again thank you to all who came to support Speedhound, especially in the torrential rain at the start. Many thanks to Speedhound for the evening's hosting and for subsidizing the beers!

Circle

1. My first 2 candidates ran away at the start of the circle, so Tiny was the first on the ice. On Sec was simply wondering why she and Huge needed Biking Sheila to accompany them into the jungle. Something to do with menage a trois?
2. Toddy please step forward. I've not been to run for awhile but every time I open the pictures to put in the newsletter I notice that Toddy is always on ice. So the culprit who does that every week on ice!
3. Next Money Manfred, was at his house and he complained to me that he never is in the newsletter with his picture. I asked the circle, luckily most are reading the newsletter and they confirmed tat Money is quite often in the pictures!

4. A CFTF by Justbir saw Toddy on ice, again!!!! I am not sure since I did not take any notes. But I think it had to do with complaining to the GM for being slow and the rain.

5. Another charge by the GM saw Huge on ice. This one had to do with his eye he had an operation and she wanted to know if he could see properly while driving to the runsite.

Hash House Harriets Penang

6. A charge from Iceman saw Period on ice. Again not sure why but something to do with speed and her guests.

7. Another charge by Iceman and this time it was the bunny Speedhound on ice. He was wondering if she has a delicate bum that she needed to sit on a banana leave?

8. A CFTF had Justbir on ice, again!

9. Last but not least the bunny Speedhound on ice. Great run, great food, great location, great beer. Thank you Speedhound for another great evening.

There are two kinds of people. Some wash their dishes because they just ate; the others wash their dishes because they are just about to eat.

Interesting, isn't it, that "take out" refers to food, romantic dating, and assassina-tion.

Sweater is a pretty disgusting name for a piece of clothing.
