GM Note's

Run: 2456

Date: 7 March 2019

Bunny: Committee, AGM

Runsite: Quarry, Botanical Gardens

Well another Committee year closes as the new one opens. I take this opportunity to thank my last year's Committee for all the help and support given throughout the year. I also thank others within the Club for helping with the cards, circle, setting runs and for things that happen behind the scenes that no one ever knows about. Thank you to all. It is because of YOU that the Club runs successfully and continues to do so after 47 years.

This year our numbers have lessened somewhat with a number of members leaving both Club and Country and some no longer wishing to support the Club. To all I thank you for your past contributions to the Club and the door is always open.

To say we have less numbers so far this year doesn't mean that the evenings are boring. Instead we seem to be having wonderful and jovial evenings with much camaraderie and laughter. It's like stepping back to my beginnings in Hash when having a run was expected but having FUN was the main driving force.

Your new Committee for 2019 is practically the same as for 2018 and is as follows:

GM: Justbeer

VGM: Speedhound

On Sec: Tulips

On Cash: Rupiah

Asst On Cash: No Choice

Committee at large: Grandma, Posh, Mem Sahib

Auditor: Bommy

Thank you for all your support.

After the run and circle we retired to White Beach Restaurant for the AGM Dinner. Once again they provided us with some wonderful and tasty food (7 courses) and with the subsidised beer, the evening was raucous, friendly and FUN. Even after we had to vacate many members sat outside and continued their conversations and certainly kept Samy busy. It was another great Harriet night!

*Next Week we are at Leader Garden, Twin Towers, for Spermwhale's Run
Please come and support*

Please respect the environment which we enjoy each week and ensure that no rubbish is left at the site, including cigarette butts, scraps and general litter. Thank you.

Burst, by Akzhole

It's about 11.00am and already blisteringly hot when Justbeer says to me "Let's go do today's run," she having already set it on the Wednesday with Sai Seng, Beauty Queen and No Choice. Not having any excuse to say no I reluctantly agreed and for the first time in a long time I found my hash gear, got it all together and we headed for the Quarry.

IT WAS HOT!!!

Walking up the side path leading to the 'On In' was a struggle and that was only the beginning. I knew I was going to suffer along the route. I had thought it was to be on track which I can manage these days but no it was up the drain and then into the track/bush just under the tar road to Penang Hill. It was dry and slippery with the gravel covered in leaves to add skating to the fun and I was never good on skates. I haven't been on this trail for a long time and so took my time but was still labouring as I worked my way along the narrow track and climbed here and there to get to the next levels pretty much skirting but climbing most of the time. It went here and there under and over fallen trees. Getting caught up in foot vines galore or being attacked with machine gun from all sides. I was painfully slow, stopping for breathers and drinks from my 3 litre supply.

At one point the trail was literally my foot wide and naturally enough was on a slope which gave way and sent me skidding down the dried painful gravel losing skin on the way. Another breather was then required before heaving myself back up the slope grabbing hold of anything that would take my weight.

At this point I was actually ahead of Justbeer as she tends to be slower than me at the beginning of the runs but she caught me up and then it was tough for me to stay in touch with her as she continued non-stop on through and on up the slope until we finally met the path that would ultimately lead to the back of the shooting gallery. Slow going up and slower coming down but Justbeer was gone. Thank goodness she had told me to watch for the left turn to bring me back to the Quarry. It was a pity she didn't tell Bommy that in the evening as he missed it and ended up coming out around 7.40pm after following paper from a run 2 weeks earlier but then he is much fitter than I.

I found the turn but geez it was steep and slippery all the way down until exiting by the 'unused' toilets across the little bridge. Golly I was SOOOOOOOO glad to be out as I wasn't sure how much more I could take. It took me 2 exhausting hours to complete a trail of about 2.4 KM carrying 3 litres of fluid which I drank all. In contrast Iceman did it in 45 mins or thereabouts with no water! Don't you just envy some people!!

1. Welcome to the guests. We had 3 guests for the run, Black German came just in time to sit on the ice together with Period our very regular guest and Suan a friend of Period. Thank you for supporting our AGM Run.
2. The On Sec then called Mission Impossible on ice. She missed last week's run but heard it was a fantastic evening. She then asked Wankston Churchill to sit on the ice as well. She wanted to know how last week run was. Wankston said it was fantastic it took him 2 days to recover and missed lunch and dinner the next day. The reason was that Mission Impossible brought out whiskey.

3. Welcome our new member Peter, who has already a hash name, not really sure how to write it, but as I understood it means tickling his manhood. I am sure his Mrs. knows how to do that.
4. The new committee was called out. Hope we will have another great year coming up for the Harriets.
5. Run setters on ice. It was a great run, short but still a good workout. Bommy decided he wanted some more exercise and did a long run. Circle closed and we went to White Beach where we had a great dinner. The food was great and so was the company.
