Hare: Good Year

Runsite: Bukit Jambul

Bukit Jambul today, I better leave early otherwise I will be in traffic jam for a long time and that time can be much more useful in the jungle. When I made it to the runsite after having stopped for a million red lights!!! Only the hare, Snap Cop and Fancy Pants were there, either the others were busy or also in traffic. Since I was under strict conditions (don't go alone, stay on paper and be careful) I was very happy that Fancy Pants asked: "Shall we go together?" Yes please, I still need to change though. No worries I still need to call Karen because she could not open the garage door. And since they expected snow and ice in Europe again it's nice to park your car inside, saves you a lot of cold hands while trying to unfreeze your car. Good Year explained the run statistics and off we went following the path up. The path up was already an exercise, pfff. But we went left and followed the path up the hill. That went actually not too bad, I was slower then Fancy Pants but he waited for me till I caught up with him. Then after the first up we walked through the orchard and enjoyed a little chit chat. The view was already very nice. Up it still went then after the orchard we went back into the jungle for the last on up. And there it went from not so fast, to slow, slower and slowest! Halfway up the hill Peter passed us and he was also panting a lot. So it was not only me who had trouble with the hill. Later The General, Imposter, No Choice and Itchi Bay passed us. Fancy Pants was being a perfect gentleman he did not say anything about me being slow, he just took his camera out and took a lot pictures of the beautiful view. He had plenty of time, ha ha. Finally we reached the top and down it went. There were a lot of rocks and one of those rocks was a bad one, I stepped wrongly on it and crack said my ankle. Jee that does not sound good at all. I did manage to get up, luckily I brought my tongkat and step by step with the support of Fancy Pants we made it out, not long after dark. There I put my ankle on the ice and sat there icing it. We were not the last ones out, Silent Man and Suddakar followed shortly as well. The good part of being injured is that your food and beer is being brought to you. After the ice I changed and drove back home for more ice. (Ankle is getting much better now)

When I left everybody was having a good time and they enjoyed the evening. Thanks Good Year for a good run, great food, subsidized beer and other liquid goodies.

*Next Week we are at Taman Pekaka,
Jalan Ketitir,

Circle

1. Welcome the paying guests which were Black German and Period. Black German said he would pay so that he could get a free beer!!
2. The GM then put Snap Cop on ice. His crime was for not making up his mind where to have his run which is NEXT week. After much prompting he has decided to have it at Taman Pekaka (Jln Ketitir).
3. A CFTF by Saylor saw the GM on ice. This was a thank you by Saylor for being a good GM and steering the Club so well. And so say all of us!!
4. A second CFTF this time by Goodyear saw Saylor himself sitting on the ice. He apparently told Goodyear he did the whole run but it was discovered whilst climbing the hill he came across two girls with whom, when they reached the top, they all stopped for photos and then returned.

5. Goodyear then called out the GM of the Batang Hash for recognition and to thank him for coming to his run.

6. The last icing was for the hare, Good Year, to thank him for a good run, delicious food and for subsidizing the beer for the evening.
