Bunny: Kiss Me

Runsite: Shamrock Beach, watertank

After being away for 10 days my co-hares and I set off to lay the trail for Kiss Me's run. A bout of stomach cramps slowed me up from the word go however. Fortunately my ever reliant co-hares laid the trail whilst I struggled to follow. The trail went up and up and up through the bush and when we finally got on the common path we turned to go down. In my mind it seemed very short (1.5Km) but who am I to complain?

In the evening there was an air of festivity as the Chinese shrine was celebrating the deity's birthday on the Friday to which we were invited. Tents had been erected and tables and chairs laid out.

Hash House Harriets Penang

Our smallish crowd saw 30ish Members and 3 guests. Also present were the curious Committee members from the shrine.

Flagging off the Hashers I knew the FRBs would be back early and it was no surprise to see W'Anchor and Peter back in 25 mins. Everyone else declared it a 'good' run except for the FRBs who said it was too short but wouldn't go around again except for Bommy who did do two rounds in about 50 minutes.

Kendra, our newest member had brought along friend Lauren and they claimed to have enjoyed the run but Kendra, who did her first run in Youth Park, said she much preferred the track to the bush. Hugh was not to be seen though at this time.

The food was laid out with homemade bread and Hummus for starters, followed by both pork and vegetarian chilli with brown rice plus a delicious chickpea dish as well.

Hugh finally arrived back after having inadvertently doing the whole run which was a surprise to him and to everyone else but Kudos to him.

We then had our short circle.

Many thanks to Kiss Me for the evening's hosting and for home cooking all the food. She had even baked a cake which was used for the month's birthday celebration.

Many thanks Francoise for a super evening!

Next Week we are at Lembah Permai, shoplots, for Bommy's Run

Please inform the On Sec a.s.a.p. where your run will be

Please respect the environment which we enjoy each week and ensure that no rubbish is left at the site, including cigarette butts, scraps and general litter. Thank you.

Circle

1. We would have welcomed guest Lauren but she had left early along with Kendra.
2. Huge @ Greasy Palms was asked to sit on the ice and relate how he did the whole run instead of his usual go so far and then retrace. But Kudos for doing it.
3. Welcome back to Botak Chin who once again has returned from his usual 6 month visit down under. Also welcome back to Miss Bollywood who has also returned.

4. Name time: This was new member Judy's 3rd time with the Harriets and the GM thought it was appropriate to give her a hash name. Not quite sure how it came about but she ended up with the name "Snatch and Grab" which was officially confirmed by the very reverend W'Anchor doing the honours.
5. A CFTF by W'Anchor saw Kissing(h)er on ice. W'Anchor told the story of getting changed and seeing Kissing(h)er walking up the road but zigzagging from side to side as though he was drunk. After about 5 minutes W'Anchor looked up to see that Kissing(h)er was only about 20 metres further on from where he had last seen him making him either a very slow walker or one who covers probably more ground than if he had done the run.

6. Thank you to the Bunny Kiss Me for a generous hosting and for the delicious home cooked food and providing the cake for the birthday celebration.
7. The last icing for the evening was for the April born members but only Botak Chin was present. Nevertheless we made the customary birthday wish to all our April born babies.

The struggle is real for the ferret – if a female ferret in heat doesn't find a mate, she can die.

A sloth takes 2 weeks to digest the food he's eaten.

In the USA, there are more Chinese restaurants than all the McDonald's, KFCs, Burger Kings and Wendy's put together.

If you kept yelling for 8 years, 7 months and 6 days, you would produce enough sound energy to heat up a cup of tea.

At any given moment, about 0.7% of the people in the world are drunk.

In 2001, a seven foot bull shark bit off a boy's arm. His uncle not only saved the boy, but dived in after the shark, wrestled it to shore where the shark was shot, retrieved the boy's arm and it was sewn back on in the hospital.
