GM Note's

Run: 2466

Date: 16 May 2019

Hare: Oyster Licker

Runsite: Bayee Pass

The four runsetters emerged from the last hill to run into the “On In” hashers just starting the run. Since I was not there to flag them off (as I was one of the setters) and the VGM was late arriving and there being no other Committee member present, the assembled hashers took themselves off.

The trail set on Thursday was a result of an abortive attempt on the Wednesday when the hare and co-hare literally ended up in Balik Pulau instead of Pukka Sahib!! The very wet and soft soil made the overall terrain extremely challenging but not impossible and I must say was one of the better Thursday runs.

Viking, Botak Chin had started early and were the first ones to return followed

Hash House Harriets Penang

by C*nt Digger and another guest, Marcus, who was doing his virgin Hash and thoroughly fell in love with Hashing. Two other guests then followed, Pointy (from Oz and a veteran Hasher) together with The Bookmaker, another veteran who actually hashed in Penang in the 80s and had the photos to prove it with some very young current hashers on them too! The only hashers left in the jungle were the VGM, Period and Pukka Sahib who all started a little late but should have been able to do the run before dark. Unbeknownst to us they had received a phone call from Goodyear to turn back for whatever reason. I later found out that they were on the last hill when they turned around and so effectively pretty much did the run twice by returning!! What a waste!!

The generous host had invited friends to join the evening's festivities and that boosted the numbers as we had only 18 members and 5 guests. Laksa, fried chicken, veg, fish and rice cooked by the host's wife had people coming back for more again and again after which we had our usual quick circle.

Many thanks to Oyster Licker for the very challenging run, fantastic food and for subsidizing the beer for the evening! There may not have been many who turned up but those who did had a great time.

Circle

1. We had five guests on the night: Moira @ Period and Wendy from Penang, Marcus from Germany (it was his virgin run too), Pointy from Oz and The Bookmaker from Greece. Welcome and please run with us again any time you can.
2. The GM then put Goodyear on ice for calling Speedhound & Co. and telling them to turn around when he didn't know where they were on the run and had not done the whole run himself. They effectively covered twice the distance of the complete run because of it.

3. Next was Wendy. She often comes to Harriets when Miss Bollywood is in town but won't join and hence becomes an unwilling guest having to pay her RM10. But she is a good sport and takes the ribbing with good grace.
4. C*unt Digger was then asked how he got his name. He is quietly spoken so many didn't get the story but Sai Seng said it was a play on words that started with something from Candid Camera. I'll leave you all to work that one out!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

5. Some of the host's guests came from Betong just for the run and in acknowledgement Goodyear put the GM, Yam Cha, on ice as a thank you.
6. Hare on Ice!! Many thanks to Oyster Licker for hosting the evening. The run was deemed great but tough. The food fantastic and plentiful, and the subsidized beer flowed down well too!

Next week we are at the Happy Family Restaurant in Jalan Taman Cantik, 11500 Ayer Itam. It is being hosted by Miss Bollywood. Please come and support her. Please also let her know if you intend to be there so that she can order the necessary food. Many thanks.
