GM Note's

Run: 2470

Date: 13 June 2019

Bunny: Committee

Runsite: Bee Gallery

A low turnout due primarily to the FTAC 1000th run happening on the same date! We had twenty members and one guest (Markus).

The run was set the day before and from the sweat coming off the bodies as they returned it must have been quite a good run. John said it was the toughest he had done to date but only because The General was pushing the pace and John tried to stay with him, successfully it can be said as they finished together.

A very wet Markus arrived back with C*nt Digger walking hand in hand for the camera. The rest followed after that. All were back before dark and the food, fried chicken and bee hoon was served. No Choice had also made some omelette, veggies and rice so there was plenty to go around and to take away later on.

Everyone was nicely sitting around, chatting and drinking and with both the GM and VGM missing we decided not to have a circle.

It was a good evening despite the low numbers but we do hope to see more members attend next week.

Thank you to the Committee for the organisation and food.

Botanical Gardens,

Funnies

“Where are you?” is a question that’s never been asked in sign language.

That moment when you switch off the light in the cellar and then run out as if the hounds of Hell were at your tail.

My lips don’t touch when I say the word ‘touch’. My lips do touch when I say the word ‘separate’.

My right elbow is and will remain untouched by my right hand.

Will lots of fat friends make me look thinner?

Prunes are dried-up plums. So prune juice doesn’t really exist.

People laugh that an elephant would be scared by a mouse. But think how most people react to spiders.

Firetrucks should really be called watertrucks.
