VGM Note's

Run: 2490

Date: 31 October 2019

Hare: Akz Hole

Runsite: Bee Gallery

We had 5 paid guests and 27 members turning up for Akzhole @ Mike's run who took over the Deepavali run. The Indians were still in Deepavali fever.

The GM was away to settle some family issues in KL. The evening went without our GM. Mike apologized and started off the run.

BURST Run 2490 311019

20191031 run by Hash House Harriets Penang

Hare/Bunny: Mike/Axzhole who had kindly swopped dates with the Deepavali Run

Hash House Harriets Penang

Time: 6pm till late, some went in early

Run-setters: A whole kampung!

Runsite: Bee Gallery, Botanical Garden

Of Bike and Boat Butts: Beyond me, Beyoncé

Despite being 4th in at least 5 Hash runs-in-a-row from Bee Gallery, the Harriets (both men and women members) managed to fix us a different run. Kudos to the whole kampung that turned out to set run on Wednesday.

I arrived in time to tail Speedhound, Pussy Cat and Take Care, just as the Circle disintegrated into a pack of jostling Hashers poised to fling itself into the Botanics.

We took the right fork on the road into Botanics, right past the Kayu Arang (charcoal) tree looking exactly the shape of a giant broccoli, past the rockery and cactus garden, before paper led us up into the forest - this was well before PBA, reservoir, etc.

Speedhound requested that we step on it a bit please, as she would like to ketchup with General and 3 guests, who in right and proper mind Asian-styled kiasu-ness - had gone in 10 minutes earlier.

We never did catch up with them, and it was not for lack of trying, ha ha!

The first part of the trail was steep but manageable. Speedhound had started off on some interesting topic, and I just carried on with it - not having very much to do except to switch off my brain and follow in her footsteps up the hill.

I think it was the trio of Bommy, Imposter, then Shark just ahead of us, then.

Somewhere along the way, Speedhound asked Shark to please do something to stop the incessant chatter coming from behind her (me!).

Shark was so kind!

He made a request for silence, then immediately described it as being made in a politically incorrect manner, and further apologised that being PC was not always effective. Of course I took no notice of any this, and took a short cut and breather - when we came to a stream with a soft bed of orange sand.

Hash House Harriets Penang

This only earned me Speedhound speeding off up the hill, which me left to trudge along in Shark's footsteps.

Shark must have figured that words, PC or not, would no longer help Speedhound's cause... and had gallantly used his entire body to shield Speedhound from being yakked to death, ha ha!

I amused myself for a while watching how mud squishes when someone maybe double Speedhound's weight is put on it.

The steps that Shark makes in the mud, make even firmer "steps" than the ones Speedhound imprints for us.

Trail went up to where there is a large log lying on a slope, in tangent to the direction we were coming from / going to. At this point, Speedhound pointed right, downhill, and said that way Lily Pond.

For at least a year, I thought Pussy Cat / Lily was called Lily Pond, only to find that Lily Pond is a Hashman.

Paper led right over that log and up the usual steep palm-filled on-up to the red-brick-strewn top of Mount Olivia.

Today is Halloween (Hallows Eve), which makes tomorrow All Saints (Hallows) Day.... and the 2nd of November All Souls Day.

Speedhound was commenting how this, like Cheng Beng's graveyard cleaning period around Apr, would just about guarantee wet weather, and that Ang Mor ghosts get just one night out (Halloween), while Chinese ghosts get to gallivant about for a whole month (7th lunar month) each year.

On we went down to the stream that flows past Bee Gallery, before deciding to take a little spin around the Botanics since it was still light.

On the way back, dusk had made way for night, and over in the west southwest, a slender bowl or baseball mitt of a moon made as if to catch the Jupiter "falling" into it. To my surprise, Goodyear had also noticed this game the moon had going on with this “star”. More so since it was a cloudy night with all these characters playing hide-and-seek with us.

Moon Hangs Out with Jupiter this Halloween

<https://earthsky.org/tonight/moon-goes-by-jupiter-on-halloween>

It was good to come back to the light and hubbub of Hash, the food and our true home, the Beerwagon.

Uncle Bee, sporting a crisp new haircut, and a big smile - served us neatly packed triple-choice of rice with delicious:

- spare ribs
- Marmite chicken
- chicken with ginger and spring onions.

Yum yum!

We had been afraid that there might be a dearth of committee members seeing some Hashers were away at an Inter-Hash event in Zhang Jia Jie (spectacular mountains featured in the “Avatar” film)... but Rupiah was there cheerfully serving drinks to those on ice, and Nelly working way hard recording events with her camera.

The scent of cigar was an unusual treat this evening, and everything seemed right with the world.

Speedhound asked for whatever I could remember of Iceman’s charge that Barry (a fellow Irishman...?) had been rubbing his rear end on Shark’s motorbike during long rides with Bommy.

Barry protested that he had been rubbing his rear end on a lot of other things as well.

Finding no traction here, in true anti-skid fashion, Iceman swerved over to discreetly inquire of Barry - was there still space on the bike for him, seeing Shark’s motorbike has a very slight reputation for bouncing along with buns as bewitching as Beyoncé’s.

Barry was nearly lost for words for a second (maybe thinking really fast!), before

Hash House Harriets Penang

'fessing up that he would take Iceman's word for it, seeing that he (Barry) hadn't yet noticed what was behind Beyoncé.

Shark did his best to bail Barry's butt off ice by distracting us saying he never shared stuff and that sharing is not caring.

All this was a bit beyond Speedhound and me, especially after doing an extra round around the Botanics and talking rot all the way, so I am truly sorry if this cockeyed account of a casual conversation between 2 Irishmen has come out pure blarney.

Ampun, ya... ha ha!

An entirely useless fact:

Remember that Kayu Arang (charcoal) tree we ran past?

I just found out that the gum from its fruit are used to protect and preserve the posterior part of boats.

Hey, knock yourself out here:

Many thanks to Mike Axzhole, JustBeer and runsetters, Harriets' hardworking committee, all Hashers present and elsewhere, tonight's chef - Uncle Bee, and Samy, for another fun-filled Thursday run and makan!

Woof and On on!

Period.

In the true spirit of Hash and warm friendship, it is my pleasure to invite you and your members to our Celebration Run to commemorate our Club's 17 years of Hashing together with the Joint Run for Kedah/Perlis Chapters.

We last celebrated in 2013 in Danok, Thailand and it's opportune to once again have the privilege to host Hashers and Harriettes no matter where you're from. (Yes, it's a mixed run). This time we celebrate on our homeground in Sg. Petani, Kedah.

We also humbly solicit your support by way of donations/sponsorships and advertisement.

So let's come together once more for joyous, fun and friendship. My members are looking forward to celebrate with you. ON ! ON !
