Run: 2495

Date: 5 December 2019

Bunny: Flying Fish

Runsite: Lembah Permai, shoplots

We set the run on Wednesday just so we could relax on the Thursday. Starting from the shop lots and turning towards the end of the housing next to the Kindergarten we stapled the first logo paper. Turning into the overgrown tar road before the locked aluminium gates we went through the gaps at the end. Walking behind the houses to the far end we turned right and plodded through overgrown bush hoping we didn't surprise anyone or anything!! We were soon on the path and found paper from PIH2's run the previous Saturday, in the farmer's plot. We started climbing up the terraces to exit just before the farmer's fence at the top. Going towards the right we exited just near the yappy dogs with wagging tails.

Everything was overgrown but with the help of stick and cutter we soon made our way through and came out by the rubber trees. We headed down through bush and boulders on a grassy path which would take you to the Haunted House if followed. Here we crossed the stream and followed another path that was strewn with old ceramic cups which once upon a time would have collected latex from the trees. Skirting the hill, we crossed the bubbling stream again and took the long, long on up until we hit the Hash Highway.

This was the easiest part although a long way from the runsite. Once again there was lots of paper from the PIH2 1000th run and we followed it until we left the highway to make our normal way down back to home. The route was blocked in places with fallen trees and in one place was a healthy tree that had been purposely cut down by thieves looking to get rich on Agarwood chips no doubt! In the evening we had 21 members, 2 new members and 10 guests. After the usual preamble by the GM they all headed off to the 'On In' chatting away. Luca and Gabby were the last to go in after being taken to the starting point and the logo paper being pointed out to them. After an hour Bommy returned followed by Take Care and the rest of the pack thereafter. However Moira, Suan, Luca and Gabby were not to be seen. Suan and Moira finally did return but had not seen either Luca or Gabby on the trail. Bommy managed to contact them and they were in high spirits and were almost out but by the Chinese temple at TAR College. Bommy picked them up. It turns out that somewhere along the way they had followed PIH2 short run paper. They were naturally tired but a beer or two revitalised them and they soon recovered with some food. It was 10.30 by this time so they went off home. The remaining Hashers stayed around chatting and drinking until Samy shut up shop at midnight!!

*Next Week we are at Shamrock Beach,

Circle

1. Welcome the remaining guests: Tania, Charlotte and Serena.
2. Welcome to the Club. Puki Merah, who has been running with us for some weeks and Linda Goh who came for the first time and joined. Welcome, welcome and we hope you have many happy years running with us.

3. A CFTF by the GM put guest Bananaman on ice. Waiting the return of Luca and Gabby there was talk of a possible rescue and who should go. Bommy and Itchi Bai had rescued a Chinese girl on the Saturday and so it was thought that a Chinese should go and rescue the two Caucasians. However, as recounted earlier, they found their own way out but Bananaman missed the opportunity to go and pick them up!!

4. Bunny on ice. Many thanks to Flying Fish on her virgin hosting. She couldn't set the run but did run in the evening and quickly too! The catered food was delicious and together with the subsidised beer we had another great evening.

Funnies

A boy comes into a butchery and stares at the butcher for at least 5 minutes. Finally the butcher asks, "So why do you stare at me for such a long time, boy?" The boy explains: "My mother wanted to know if you have a pig's tail or pig's ears."

Two boys are walking outside and one of them finds a hundred dollar bill. His friend suggests that they should take it to the lost-and-found office. The boy replies: "No point. This is my mom's money." His friend is startled, "But how can you know that?" "Because my father keeps saying that my mother is just throwing money out the window."

"Your brother is so small!" the neighbor says happily to little Paulie.
"Yeah, he's only my half-brother."

"Have you ever seen a little calf being born?" asks a farmer Little Johnny.
"No, how is it?"
"Well, first come the front legs, then the head, then the shoulders and the body and finally the hind legs."
"Wow, cool, and how do you put it all together then?"

Two pigeons are sitting on a roof, watching a fighter plane streak across the sky leaving a big condensation trail behind it.
"Wow, he seems to be in a hurry," observes one pigeon.
"And what would you do if your butt was on fire?!"
