Biking Sheila's Note's

Run: 2498

Date: 26 December 2019

Hare: Take Care

Runsite: Youth Park, Sai Seng Corner

I rocked up at the run site at 5:55pm to unusually enthusiastic smiling faces from the crowd and I quickly discovered there was no committee present. The illusion that people were eagerly happy to see me was quickly diminished when I realized it was only because some still think I am on the committee and they were merely waiting for a circle to be called and the run commenced. Nevertheless I was happy to step up again and was even happier when I noticed Rupiah arrive. We had a brief chat and the circle was called. Five guests from Australia and the UK were welcomed, while apparently 3 other guests had already gone in. The Hare announced a short to medium run and everyone was sent off in the right direction.

The guests were given Harriet logo paper and advised to follow it and ignore any other logo paper they may come across.

It turned out to be a short run after all with Goodyear the first runner back in 45mins. Jackpot's return in 42 mins was declared an SCB by Goodyear so his accolades were short lived. Harriets front running woman was Pussyfoot who was back in 55 mins. Last runners back were at 7:30pm consisting of the 3 guests who went in early, escorted back safely by John, Toddy Tan and our reliable sweeper Silentman. The 2 guests from Tokyo found the run particularly difficult because although they are Hashers, they have never hashed in the jungle before and made it clear they would not be doing it again.

Everyone enjoyed the delicious food prepared by Kopitiam aka Oyster Licker, included chicken, omelet, tofu, vegetable curry with rice and jackfruit. A flying fox flew in to check out what was going on. I called for a brief Circle before the evening continued late into the night and a good night was enjoyed by all. The Aussie guests enjoyed themselves and promised to return, especially the two kids who were particularly happy because they were given beer in the circle! The run site was quite dark and therefore many thanks to Silent Man for providing his single light for the Circle and taking the photos when I was on ice. – Biking Sheila.

The run started with surprisingly 22 members and 8 guests in attendance, despite the Christmas season. Some of the regular ang mohs were also in attendance, to make up the numbers. This run also set a record, there was not even a committee member to start the run!

The run started as usual on the left side, down the slope to the road and thence to the path leading to the stream, metal steps and platform, and then to the old horse stable. After we crossed a stream, we came across a steep rock face with tree roots and vines on it. They made good climbing ropes and also worked our muscles which eventually warmed us up

The route took us into much undergrowth with thorns and we manage to clear the hurdles to get into much easier trails. The trail avoided the usual hiker's path and after an inclined climb, we cut out into the said hiker's trail, and into another diagonal climb. After a while the trail cut into the usual homecoming route and down to the run site. The run was a short to medium run, but was enough to burn some "Christmas" calories.

Circle

1. The guests were welcomed, Peter, Lucy, Matt, Prue & Oliver (from Aust & UK), Peter Sellers (Singapore), Shit on my Face & Wet Muscle (Tokyo).

2. Biking Sheila called Toddy Tan to the ice claiming it was on behalf of the GM in Perth, as TT is the GM's favorite person on ice. Toddy was asked if not wearing his glasses was the reason he's been MIA from the Harriets?

3. A charge from the floor from Goodyear for the GM on ice. In her absence Biking Sheila was chosen as GM's look alike. Mem Sahib joined her on ice. The charge was why no club logo paper was provided for run setters while all the committee enjoyed their holidays. Were the committee all setting international runs?

4. Another CFF from Take Care had Rupiah on ice for disappearing during the run. In Rupiah's absence Biking Sheila was again called as the look alike substitute. Take Care said he was not happy with committee not coming to his run and iced water was poured on her to help him cheer up.

5. Hare on ice Take Care for setting a good run and providing delicious food. Iced water was poured again to help keep him happy.

Funnies

What do you get when you wake up on a workday and realize you ran out of coffee?

A depresso.

I used to breed rabbits. Then I realized they can handle it themselves.

My dog is an awesome fashion adviser. Every time I ask him what I look like in my clothes, he says “WOW!”

Mom! I’m a 3d printer!

Oh come on, Tommy, close the door when you poop.

Does your horse smoke?

[No.]

Well, then I think your stable is burning.

What are a shark’s two most favorite words?

Man overboard!

“Waiter, the steak is smelling very strongly of liquor!”

The waiter backs up 3 steps and asks, “How’s that now?”

I ran into my ex in town yesterday. Then I ran over him and backed up to run into him again.

Need cheering up? Start a fight with somebody when they have the hiccoughs!
