Run: 2500

Date: 9 January 2020

Hare: Pukka Sahib

Runsite: Bayee Pass

Pukka Sahib had the honour of hosting the 2500th run of the Harriets. The run site was his favourite with great vistas over the west of the island and a fabulous sunset to make the occasion with wonderful colours radiating the sky. The air was cool to the delight of everyone and the only sad part was that more members were not present to join in the very good run (more of that later from Arsetrologist) delicious food and great camaraderie. I do hope we have more of you turning up in subsequent weeks.

Burst by Arsetrologist

What a beautiful run! As you can see from the picture below, this was a scenic gorgeous location. Definitely one of my favourites so far.

Lucy (Hash name yet to be given) and I had a very scary start to the run... After my poor navigation skills led us down the wrong road, Lucy conducted a turn to drive back up the hill to the start line, we were worried at this stage we were going to be late.

Unfortunately the road where the turn was conducted was very steep, busy traffic and little room to move, the front passenger wheel ended up in the drain. I very carefully got out of the vehicle as I thought if it were to tip both of us would be stuck and I couldn't get Lucy out. I also realised less weight on that side of the vehicle may help the next manoeuvre. We tried to wait for a gap in traffic and Lucy needed to almost drive directly across to lanes at speed to release the tyre. With some luck and a big deep breath she pulled herself out and I jumped back in. Locals weren't happy!

So we get to the start line with a high heart rate realising we missed the initial group. Off we go running down the hill, on-on! The view was amazing but we were on the edge of the road so there was little time to appreciate the scenery to avoid colliding with a plastic.

We eventually find the turn to take us inland, that's when the run became very interesting. We were running around what appeared to be banana plantations and private property. A man on his scooter who appeared to live there showed us the gate would open and the direction to go. We ran through a stream, most of the journey was pathed. The fauna was amazing, I have never seen bananas this colour before. For the small portion of the run that wasn't pathed, we were on paper crawling through which was much to Frank Bolton's disbelief.... "Are you sure you are on paper?" we replied we were, still unsure he takes a small shortcut and we meet him on the way up. We couldn't believe he forgot his own run! We figured that was reason to sit on the ice.

We also met some very pleasant dogs in their backyard just sitting there wagging their tails watching this crazy lot running through their yard.

Before you knew it we were on the uphill and almost back at the start line. That was when this photo was taken. We found another hasher just sitting enjoying the view, such a lovely place to sit.

I believe a lot of effort went in to organising that run having to ask for permission to access the property. Probably a good thing it was very short due to still working off some of that Christmas and New Year cheer.

The food was delicious, soy chicken, nasi, ikan... And the little cakes. The only disappointing part was a lot of the usual Hashers were missing.

Until next time..Arsetrologist

Circle

1. Welcome once again to guest Olivia, whom we hope will become a member someday. Moira was also present but had to dash off before circle time.
2. Next on ice were Speedhound and No Choice as called by the GM. Wondering what they had done wrong the GM congratulated them by revealing that Speedhound had completed 1300 runs and No Choice 100 runs. Congratulations to you both!!

3. A CFTF by Arsetrologist saw the Hare Pukka Sahib on ice. The charge was for continually reminding them about following paper whilst on the run, which is strange because they do but Pukka Sahib rarely does so!!

4. The GM then put Mem Sahib on ice (as Rupiah had already left) to thank them for running the Club in her absence over the Christmas period.

5. Pukka Sahib was then back on ice to be thanked for a lovely run and delicious food.

Funnies

A mother thinks there's something strange going on and eventually decides to take a DNA test.

She finds out that their child is actually not related to her or her husband at all.

Wife: "Darling, there's something really important that we need to talk about. I did a DNA test and Roger isn't our biological child."

Husband: "Of course he isn't, don't you remember? We were just leaving the hospital and the baby pooped hugely so you told me, 'Go and change the baby, I'll wait here.'"

A man and a woman are having a date.

The woman remarks, "You know, you look totally like my third husband!"

The man is startled and asks, "Really, Laura, how many times have you been married?!"

"Twice."

"Some people ask the secret of our long marriage.

We take time to go to a restaurant two times a week. A little candlelight, dinner, soft music and dancing.

She goes Tuesdays, I go Fridays."

Henry Youngman

"Oh no, Roger, why did you two split up?"

"She's a liar and a cheat! She said she was the whole night at her sister's!"

"So? Maybe she was."

"Yeah, no way. I was the whole night at her sister's!"
